Volunteers Target Cleanup

Some 40 volunteers turned out April 9 for a neighborhood cleanup on Atlantic Street NE in Warren. It was spearheaded by the Mahoning Valley

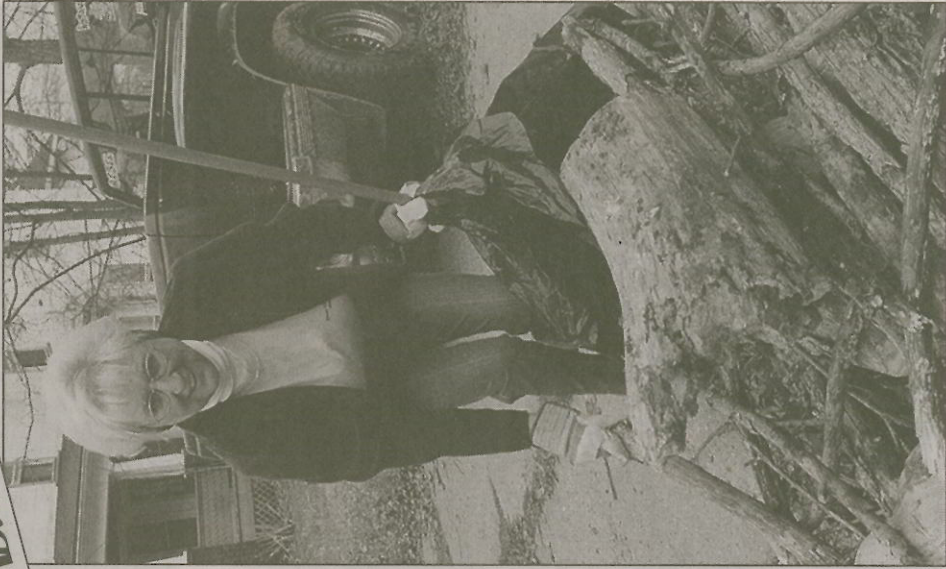

Organizing Collaborative and North Side Neighborhood Action. Volunteers also boarded up vacant houses, a magnet for criminal activity.

John Goddard and Jerry Milks work on cutting and clearing fallen tree limbs at an abandoned house.

Josh Keen and John Cope board up a side door at a vacant house on Atlantic Street NE.

Briggita Oaks clears away branches and other debris littering the neighborhood on the north side of Warren.
